

Conference 2010

Proclamation: Walking the Talk

Booking details

Here are the details for the FPE Conference 2010

Please be sure to book in as soon as possible as this helps greatly with administration

We've invited Eric Delve to do our Bible readings with practical implications and inspiration for proclamation in a parish.

Eric born in 1942 in South London, married Pat in 1963. Forty-five years, six children and seven grandchildren later, they are still together: 'A miracle of grace on her part,' he says. He loves reading, music, crosswords, good red wine, dog walking, books on World Wars, and is an avid 'Goon Show' fan.

Following years of itinerant evangelism, in 1988 he studied at Trinity College Bristol and entered Parish ministry in January 1993, at St Lawrence Kirkdale, in inner-city Liverpool. He calls it 'The place where I relearned the power of the gospel.'

In May 1996 Eric became Vicar of St Luke's Maidstone. He is Chairman of The Spirit & The Bride Trust, a trust dedicated to 'Seeking revival while watching for His return'. He loves what he does and feels he is 'one of the luckiest men alive.'

In August 2008, Eric set the world record by preaching outdoors for 24 hours on a busy street in the centre of Maidstone where he is Vicar. It reignited a passion for proclamation in the public square. Please prayer for him as he works out how to combine that call with his role as Vicar and share what he learns with us.

Someone to be confirmed to share what God is doing in Fresh Expressions in a rural setting.

Diane Wooldridge will lead an Easter Experience Labyrinth and Gavin Reid will lead Communion.

In addition there will be a mix of FPE old favourites and something new!

- Worship will be led by Andy Herrick and Mick Ellor
- Super-Market Place! will again provide a forum for the exchange of ideas and stories.
- Lots of opportunities for prayer ministry
- Relax with a head or hand massage
- Meal times and the bar will give time for catching up with old friends and making new ones
