Wild Advent provides an outdoor activity for each day of the four weeks of Advent, progressing through the Carmelite themes for Advent of Waiting, Accepting, Journeying, and Birthing.

Recommended for children and families wanting practical activities.

Worship for Everyone Advent Journal by Nick and Becky Drake

"guided journal to help you draw closer to God and grow in your faith."

Explore four traditional themes – hope, peace, joy and love – accompanied by scripture and Worship For Everyone songs. There's be space to doodle and write down your thoughts and prayers as you connect with God each day.

They Sang by Amy Scott Robinson

An Advent Course based on the four songs in the Christmas story

In the nativity story, there are four sudden, Spirit-filled songs from the heart, and they're all still used in the rhythm of liturgy: Zechariah's song (the Benedictus) Mary's song (Magnificat) the song of the angels (Gloria in Excelsis) and Simeon's song (Nunc Dimittis).

In 'They Sang', Amy Scott Robinson uses four Advent studies to guide small groups to explore these ancient poems of praise and prophecy, and a fifth invites you to discover your own song.

Dreaming of a Green Christmas: Sustainability and creation care for busy people by Olivia Warburton

Written for families to work through, Dreaming of a Green Christmas is an essential companion as you prepare for the festive season. With 111 practical eco-tips to select from, you'll find inspiration and encouragement too, with pauses in the busyness for moments of biblical reflection that speak of God's love for his creation – people and planet.
