‘....in the footsteps of Saint Chad’,

with Bishop Michael Ipgrave

Saturday 13th May 2017; departing Lichfield at 7.30am, return by 10.30pm (we will be travelling in cars so timing to suit your location in the Diocese)

Starting with Eucharist at St Mary’s, Lastingham, YO62 6TN (11.00am); lunch at Helmsley, a visit to Rievaulx Abbey (2.00pm); arrival at Ampleforth Abbey (4.00pm) & maybe a tour, finishing with Vespers (6.00pm).

Costs: Contribution to petrol, entrance to Rievaulx Abbey £8, cost of lunch and evening meal at Wooley Edge Services on the way back.

Lastingham is where Chad was Abbott before becoming Bishop of Lichfield. This pilgrimage provides an opportunity to pray for our Diocese as we seek to respond to the new vision and for the major diocesan event to launch this new vision on Sat May 20th.
