CHAO.	to the	As a member of the Community of St Chad from March 20 to March 20, I commit to the five rhythms of grace and a pattern of daily prayer. As part of the community, I will pray for other members, and meet in a companion group where possible.
$O^{*}X^{T}V_{s}$	*Name
*Email Address
Address
*Parish
*Deanery
Are you part of a spiritual companion group Yes / No

If no, would you like to be put in touch with other community members to form a group? Yes / No

(Information marked with an * will be shared with other members of the community.)