There is an old Christian tradition that God sends each person into this world with a special message to deliver, with a special song to sing for others, with a special act of love to bestow. No one else can speak my message, sing my song, or offer my act of love. These are entrusted only to me.

John Powell
Called to be me is a guided quiet day designed to help you to discover and reflect on God’s unique call to you. The day will include peaceful worship, introductory meditations and suggestions for individual reflection. Information about opportunities and training for ministry and service will be available and there will be an opportunity for you to have a conversation about your own vocational journey.

This day will help you

• to recognise the times when God has been present in your life in the past
• to hear what God is saying to you today
• to embrace the future in response to God’s invitation.
